Judge Bush Named 2008 Presiding Judge of County Court's Ninth Judicial District

Judge David A. Bush has been named County Court Presiding Judge of the 9th Judicial District (Buffalo and Hall Counties). The Nebraska Supreme Court approved the nomination of Judge Bush, whose name was submitted by his fellow county court judges for the leadership position.

Judge Bush became a county court judge in Hall County in December 1987. He is an active member of the Nebraska County Judges Association where he has served on various committees.

As presiding judge, Judge Bush has primary responsibility for overseeing the delivery of county court services within his judicial district. He will also serve as the liaison to other agencies of local and state government for the courts of the district and to the Nebraska State Bar Association and the press.

Presiding judges also bear the responsibility for overseeing personnel matters for the district and provide county courts in the area with direction in matters of local district policy.
